

I am concerned that what Sinclair is doing in promoting the showing of an anti-Kerry show just days before the election is an example of what happens when the media are consolidated. Sinclair uses the airwaves free of charge and should be required to show films that are in the public interest.